

Another Fool

You are the greatest of the great
To be the best must be your fate
Your self-perception is not real
How do you feel?

You think everybody likes you but you're just another fool
Your self-love is your engine and their ass-kissing is your fuel
You think everybody likes you but you're just another fool
Your self-love is your engine and their ass-kissing is your fuel

We admire what you do
There'll never be someone like you
What should we do without you here?
Come on and cheer!

You think everybody likes you but you're just another fool
Your self-love is your engine and their ass-kissing is your fuel
You think everybody likes you but you're just another fool
Your self-love is your engine and their ass-kissing is your fuel

Everybody knows someone like you
Someone who could always do
Everything like anyone
Just for you I sing this song
Everything you do is right
I want to be by your side
I hate you and your whole suite
How they're kneeling at your feet

You think everybody likes you but you're just another fool
Your self-love is your engine and their ass-kissing is your fuel
You think everybody likes you but you're just another fool
Your self-love is your engine and their ass-kissing is your fuel
