

Chords To Last

I'm quite young but I know what I wanna do for the rest of my life
Doing all I can and I'm working hard from 9 to 5
You're telling me all the time to be serious, I don't wanna know
I think it's time again, to rock until we drop GO,GO,GO

When my time has come
And my days have passed
I wanna die on stage
And I want these chords to last

You hear them ringing in your ears
You feel them creeping in your soul
You see them blowing away fears
Now you hear them once again GO,GO,GO

When my time has come
And my days have passed
I wanna die on stage
And I want these chords to last
