

Love/Hate

My love for you is hatred
And you feel the same way, too
We're just fighting, then uniting then we lick each other's wounds
We're pretending that it's alright
but everyday's the same
It keeps our love alive somehow when we are playing the same old game

There wasn't love in my life and I felt so lonely But then you came and I thought that you could be the only One for me, one for you and another drunken night
What do I see, what do I do, your company seems bright

We had good times, we had bad times, but the good times went away

My love for you is hatred
And you feel the same way, too
We're just fighting, then uniting
then we lick each other's wounds
We're pretending that it's alright
but everyday's the same
It keeps our love alive somehow
when we are playing the same old game

Nobody else got the power to drive me crazy as you do I'm trying to find a legal way to get rid of you
But I won't and I can't, 'cause I love you in a way
No I can't let you go, 'cause I'd miss you the next day

We had good times, we had bad times, but the good times went away

My love for you is hatred
And you feel the same way, too
We're just fighting, then uniting
then we lick each other's wounds
We're pretending that it's alright
but everyday's the same
It's the same old story, it's the same old game again

My love for you is hatred
And the other way around We're just fighting, then uniting
then we lick each other's wounds
We're pretending that it's alright
but everyday's the same
It keeps our love alive somehow
when we are playing the same old game
